Students who miss class or instruction due to participation in an extra-curricular experience must seek approval by Administration prior. Such experiences will be counted as a "field trip." Examples include but are not limited to: 4H functions and college visits. These experiences should not exceed 2 contact days in any given school year. Absences are recorded but do not count against qualifying percentages (such as A+).

Only students participating on a team will be excused to attend team activities during the school day, including matches, tournaments or contests. The administration has the final authority.
